The Ultimate NEW EMPLOYEE CHECKLIST

While hiring a new employee can be stressful for employers, it can also affect fellow employees and other stakeholders. Being prepared for your new employee can make the process much smoother.

TWO WEEKS BEFORE THEY START

The two weeks prior to your new employee arrival can help minimise pressure and feeling rushed on their first day.

CHOOSE A MENTOR who will support and train the new recruit

GET FEEDBACK FROM CURRENT EMPLOYEES about their own onboarding experience

PRE-ORDER ESSENTIAL ITEMS such as computers, desks, or uniforms

WOW!

WRITE A LIST of the new recruit's job expectations

SET A WEEKLY GOAL SCHEDULE to help your recruit understand their weekly targets

Hello

MUST-DO'S BEFORE THEIR FIRST DAY

Don't forget these last few tasks to ensure you and your coworkers are ready for the recruit.

WELCOME

SCHEDULE A COLLEGE SHADOWING SESSION to allow your recruit to understand the business' practices from multiple perspectives

FIND YOUR EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK to give your recruit a more formal outline of the business' practices

GET WORK STATIONS AND ACCESS PASSES READY prior to their arrival

SET UP AN EMAIL ACCOUNT and ensure your recruit has access to all necessary files

ON THEIR FIRST DAY OF WORK

Entering a new environment is never easy, make sure you make your recruit extremely comfortable throughout the day

CONSIDER PROVIDING A COMPANY LUNCH to give the new recruit and current employees a chance to get to know one another

PREPARE URGENT PAPERWORK to fill out on the first day (save time consuming paperwork for later in the week)

CHECK EMAILS AND WORK STATION to make sure everything is working soundly

ORGANISE SOMEONE TO GREET YOUR RECRUIT to make sure they feel welcomed from the get go

Hello

EXPLAIN THE JOB REQUIREMENTS AND EXPECTATIONS to help your new employee set goals and be productive

INTRODUCE YOUR CHOSEN MENTOR to ensure the recruit feels supported

DURING THEIR FIRST WEEK OF WORK

Be patient and understanding during this week. Ensure you make all of your business practices very clear, as this week will set up your recruit's career within your company.

INSTANTLY BEGIN WITH ON-THE-JOB TRAINING and show your recruit why their tasks are so important

CONDUCT REVIEWS AT THE END OF EACH DAY to make sure you are on the same page and they are feeling positive

Nice!

GIVE THEM AN ONGOING ASSIGNMENT to help their understanding of the role

COMPLETE ANY UNFINISHED PAPERWORK such as HR, payroll and contracts

THROUGHOUT THE FIRST MONTH

The first month should include continued support for your recruit and help them achieve business goals over time. Effective training in the first month of employment is crucial.

EXPLAIN THE COMPANY'S LONG TERM GOALS as well as for the department and individual

GRADUALLY INCREASE THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES as the new recruit develops

SCHEDULE MEETINGS to check in with your recruit

EVALUATE PERFORMANCE AFTER 90 DAYS

After three months of employment, schedule a meeting with your recruit to collect feedback on their training and induction experience and update them on their progress.
